

SmartKidzClub.com has been selected to participate in the Global Entrepreneurship Summit (GES) 2017

The United States of America and the Republic of India will host the eighth annual Global Entrepreneurship Summit (GES) in Hyderabad, India on November 28-30 2017. This year's theme is: Women First, Prosperity for All. Prime Minister of India, Narendra Modi shares: "Our development is intrinsically linked to empowerment of women and it begins with the girl child." GES also welcomes Advisor to the President Ivanka Trump who will headline the United States delegation to the Summit. You can follow the summit here: <https://www.ges2017.org> – as well as on social media.

GES has been a dynamic power over the years forging relationships across entrepreneurship, innovation, emerging businesses, government, and investment. SmartKidzClub.com is excited to share their digital library platform with these key players from every sector of the world.

Surinder Sharma, CEO SmartKidzClub.com, is excited and honored to participate, asked what she hopes for herself and the company: "I am honored to have been nominated by the MBDA and selected by the US State Department to attend GES2017. This is an exciting opportunity for all woman entrepreneurs like myself to network, learn, and grow their businesses. I am especially looking forward to explore opportunities to open up new emerging markets for my company in addition to helping make an impact in the education and EdTech world. Smartkidzclub is a digital educational platform that is in line with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Digital India initiative and this US-India partnership will benefit both economies and nations."

Having recently been on two recent trade missions with the U. S. Trade Department Commercial Services in Chile and Mexico, SmartKidzClub.com is committed to making a world class educational resource available and affordable across the globe.
